of John the Baptist, who came preaching the gospel of repentance and baptism by immersion for the remission of sins saying there was one who should come after him, on whom they should believe.

The speaker gave an excellent discourse upon the life, travels and teachings of our Savior, his crucifixion, and resurrection; the teachings of the apostles, outlining in a simple manner the first principles of the Gospel, and gave scriptural references to substantiate the doctrine of Jesus Christ.

Bro. Wale concluded by bearing a faithful testimony of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and said if any person will do the will of the Father, they can know for themselves whether the Gospel is of God or man.

Pres. Owen invited all to be present at the evening meeting.

The Hymn, "Lo the Mighty God Appearing, etc." was sung. Benediction by Elder Cook.

P. 37

The Evening Session of the Conference was called to order by Pres. Owen, at 6:30 in the Swiss Hall.

Opened by singing "The Spirit of God Like a Fire is Burning."

Prayer – Elder Joseph Davis. Singing, "What Was Witnessed in the Heavens."

Pres. Lyman was the first speaker. He said the Gospel of Jesus Christ embraced by the L.D.Saints is a comprehensive work which embraced all truth no matter where it may be found. That we as a people did not desire that any person should ally himself or herself with the Church without investigating the principles of the Gospel, in order that they may know whether the work is true or false. Concluded his remarks by bearing a strong testimony to the divinity of the work engaged in by the L.D.Saints.

Counselor H. W. Naisbitt said he was glad to have the privilege of meeting so many who had come to worship God.

Asked the question why is it that the L.D.Saint missionaries who teach the same Gospel as was taught by our Savior and his apostles when they were on the earth, are not welcomed by Christian believing people. Why is it that the churches and chapels are not open for our elders to teach the doctrine of Christ? It cannot be because they are not teaching the very same plan of Salvation as taught in former days. It may be because they are teaching principles exactly the same.

Dwelt on the organization of the Church for a short time. Said if apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, etc. were necessary in former days, to instruct the people, why do we not need them today to instruct the people as much as in former days.

There was a good attendance of

P. 39

Saints and strangers and a goodly portion of the Spirit of the Lord was manifested, and enjoyed. The instructions were all timely and to the point.

After singing "Oh My Father" benediction was offered by Pres. E. R. Owen and Conference was adjourned for six months.

In regard to outdoor meetings, said we should be careful where they are held. Do not preach the gospel before drunken rabble. "Do not cast pearls before swine."

Bro. Joseph Davis endorsed the remarks of Pres. Owen. Hoped he would be able to represent the place where he came from in such a manner that his relatives and friends would approve. His desire

P. 41

Elder Wm. E. Morse reported having enjoyed his labors. Was glad to have this privilege of meeting with the elders to counsel together. Said the elders in Abertillery were earnest workers.

Elder T. W. Jones said he had found many people where he had been laboring who were afraid to attend the meetings of the L.D.Saints because others would look down on them. Felt well in the work engaged in.

Pres. Owen then explained that Bro. W. J. Wale had been sustained as counselor to Bro. Watts.

Elder Wale was then called to report the Cardiff branch and his labors. Said he felt a great responsibility resting upon him to further the work of Christ, in this land, and to encourage the Saints to live their religion. Had invited in the glorious work of spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Asked the blessings of God upon all in this effort to do good.

Elder Edward Thomas said he had tried to lay the gospel before the people. Had made many friends in the locality where he had been laboring. We cannot convert people to the Gospel. We can preach it to them, but the Lord does the converting.

Elder Elias Davis had enjoyed listening to the instruction of Pres. Owen and the brethren. Felt well towards all. Desired to stay and fulfill an honorable mission.

Elder S. T. Clarke reported his labors. We should always remember that we are servants of God, and should live for his Spirit.

Had no ill feelings towards any one. Said we should store our minds with the good instructions received.

Bro Lewis Williams remarked that we should be very careful as to houses we go in if invited to do so, as some places are not very respectable.

P. 44

Pres. Owen then arose and gave some good instructions. Spoke on habit, said we should not contract bad habits in speaking, and standing positions. Should stand firm on our feet and speak with conviction.

Remember our secret prayers. Study and inform our minds with useful knowledge, so that in time of need we may be able to explain the Gospel in a clear and comprehensive manner. Urged the elders to teach the people to follow Christ, not man.

Hoped we would all go from the meeting with a determination to do all in our power to promulgate the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Asked the elders to fast and pray for Bro. Evans of Ferndale, as he requested that he may have his free speech which is impeded by some obstruction.

pleased to meet with the Saints and friends in Cardiff. Spoke of his experience while [in] Wales some 15 years ago.

Said if we find a church upon the earth to day with apostles, prophets, pastors, teachers, etc. we can accept that as one characteristic of the true Church of Christ.

Proved from the Holy Writ that those apostles, pastors, etc., were placed in the Church to remain and would have continued down until the present time had there not been an apostasy and the gospel taken from the earth. Concluded by bearing a faithful testimony to the Restoration of the Gospel in this dispensation, and proved that, with repentance, baptism by immersion and laying on of Hands for the Reception of the Holy Ghost are saving principles to-day the same as in former days.

Pres. James L. McMurrin felt the great responsibility that rested on him as a servant of God. Urged all to study the life of Christ and have the spirit of Charity to all men. Never tear down another man's religion. Never bring persecution upon yourselves except it be for righteousness sake. We should not feel that we are here to do our own will, but the will of our Father which is in Heaven.

Let us be pure in thought, word, and deed, and not bring disgrace upon the Church by any of our acts. The thing for us to do is to go to God, make Him our friend, therein lies our strength. He is able to strengthen us and build us up.

Pres. Henry W. Naisbitt was glad to have the privilege of listening to the good instructions by Pres. McMurrin, Pres. Owen and the elders. Said we should be kind and Christlike to all, but be not ashamed or afraid to bear the Gospel message to those whom we may come in contact. P. 60

Pres. P. D. Lyman said it was a sad affair that had brought us together; yet felt very pleased to meet with us as a band of Brethren. As he had no special instructions to give, turned the time over to the elders to ask questions.

Bro. Abraham Evans expressed his opinion in regard to the best means of getting the Gospel before the people. Suggested that instead of the four elders now laboring in the Abertillery district lodging in that place, that two take up lodging in an adjoining town. 'Twas considered a good suggestion and agreed to.

The question, "Is it right to hold debates in the street" was asked. Was answered by saying it was not the spirit of the Gospel and we were not justified in so doing.

Pres. Lyman instructed the elders as to taking up lodging. Said we should preach by example as well as by precept and to do this it is necessary to lodge with the Gentiles, and to show them that our characters are worthy of emulation.

Bro. C. H. Davis approved of the suggestion made by Bro. Evans, and thought it wise for two elders only to be in a place.

Pres. Lyman was introduced and occupied the time. Spoke very interestingly upon the vastness of the Faith which we as Latter Day Saints had espoused. The Bible is not sufficiently large to contain the mandates necessary to a perfect salvation, neither are its supporters and sustainers. The Book of Mormon, the Doctrine and Covenants and the Pearl of Great Price, nothing short of New Revelation, combined with the revealed word can make complete the redemption plan. The principles of The Gospel of Christ were presented and beautifully explained, scriptural evidence being adduced to substantiate and support each ordinance advanced. The mis-conception with respect to the Eternal Truths, so plainly laid down in the Bible, and so necessary to accept, is due invariable to private interpretation and sense and prejudiced ideas so prevalent among modern Christianity. Concluded by bearing a strong testimony to the authenticities of the work advanced by the Latter Day Saints.

Singing: "We'll Sing the Songs of Zion" etc.

Closing Prayer by President Joseph N. Frisby.

Evening services were called to order by Pres. Wm. J. Wale.

Singing – “Redeemer of Israel,” etc.

President Joseph H. Frisby was first to address the congregation. Presented very beautifully the contrast between the doctrine taught by the Latter Day Saints and those of most of the Christian Creeds. The commandments that Christ taught are not optional but obligatory, providing we contemplate an existence in a future state. The instance of the Assyrian Leper was cited to show that through obedience, the person so seriously afflicted was purged from all his impurities. Advised all to adhere strictly to all commandments given.

President James L. McMurrin was desirous that all exercise their faith and prayers in his behalf, as it is a characteristic of Mormon Elders, never to prepare sermons, but to be operated upon by the Spirit of God, and present by that spirit whatever may be dictated. Explained the necessity of men who presume to officiate in the ordinances of the Gospel, being duely [sic] commissioned by the only channel possible to receive commissions – that is new and immediate revelation. It is by this source that the Latter Day Saints take their bold stand. Paul could not participate in Eternal ordinances, until set apart by duely [sic] commissioned officers, and he, too, had seen the Redeemer of the World. Through the illiterate [sic] and obscure lad, Joseph Smith, the same authority that was possessed by the Apostles in Christ’s day, is in existence at this time, and has the same shining appearance which has ever attended it. Bore a strong testimony to the modern Prophet’s divinity, and the record that he was instrumental in bringing forth.

Singing – “The Gospel Standard”, etc.

Prayer By Bro. N. P. Aagard

P. 75

Minutes of Priesthood Meeting held at 188 Cathays Terrace, Cardiff, Jan. 27, 1900.

James W. Leseur (Elder) expressed his appreciating at having the privilege of meeting with the Servants of God. Seek the spirit of the Lord and success will be the inevitable result.

Pres. James L. McMurrin said the key to success in the missionary field is fasting and prayer. Through humility and the blessings of Heaven will be bounteously poured out upon us. Be not too aggressive, present one side of the question, and trust to the Spirit of the Lord to attend and utilize the evidence we adduce, and present them. Preach the Gospel, not the country.

President Platte D. Lyman endorsed heartily the remarks and advice given by Bro. McMurrin, and advised all to adhere strictly to all the commandments of the Lord. Do not neglect to comply strictly to the Word of Wisdom, as there are great blessings attached to the obedience of this law. Pursue earnestly the work and we will be blessed.

Benediction by Elder R. E. Davis

Minutes of the Priesthood Meeting held in the Foran Hall, Newport, April 2nd, 1900. Meeting was presided over by Presiding Elder Lewis Williams.

After the opening hymn, “O Say What is Truth, etc.” was sung, “prayer was offered” by Elder Edward Thomas, then followed the hymn, “The Spirit of God, etc.”

Elder Henry John felt much gratified at the privilege of reporting the Ystrad Branch and in so doing said it was in a very prosperous condition, and a good spirit, generally, prevailed.

Much tracting and visiting had been done and indications were that good would result.

Elder Edward Thomas expressed joy and pleasure in meeting with the brethren holding the Priesthood. Said the Abertillery Branch is in a progressive condition, and the Saints seemed to be enjoying the spirit of the Gospel.

P. 78

Elder Geo. Q. Morris said much tracting and visiting had been done in this (the Newport District) and as a result many were being warned, and some were beginning to investigate, what the results will be none are able to say.

Elder L. J. Haddock appreciated his position as an ambassador of truth, and hoped to do honor to the cause. Had labored in Wales but a short time, but during that time had enjoyed his labors very much. Elder David Edwards felt happy indeed to be associated with the servants of God. Was enjoying his labors immensely, and had no other desire only to go on, and in a humble way help to spread the Gospel.

Elder Geo. W. Watkins was glad to have the opportunity of reporting his labors. They had been extremely well engaged, and to be zealous and diligent in the work was his only desire.

Elder Benjamin Williams expressed pleasure at being present with the servants of the Lord. His labors had been a pleasure to him and he felt much encouraged.

P. 79

Elder David Crackles felt encouraged in the work and hoped to prove faithful to high callings.

Elder J. T. Thane expressed his determination to use all his energy to spread the Gospel truths. Elder Lewis Williams said his joy had been unbounded in working in the cause of truth, and to do good was his only desire. We should not shirk any of our duties, but stand bravely by and tell people the object of our mission.

President W. J. Wale had nothing but words of praise and commendation for the Elders. Their reports show that they are interested and that they are working. Urged us not to grow disheartened or discouraged if indifference is displayed, simply keep in the line of our duty, and the Lord's spirit will be with us, and He will accept our endeavors.

President H. W. Naisbet felt well pleased with the condition of the Welsh Conference. The expressions that have been given, show that unity and love exist among the Brethren, and that they are trying to do their duty.

We should try and sense the importance of the positions we occupy, and then govern our lives accordingly. We get but a smattering glimpse of the numerous amount of truth included in the term "Gospel." But we must try and learn the alphabet of the saving plan and then impart the knowledge gained to the people of the world.

A few closing remarks were made by Elder Williams, announcing the Meeting that was to be held in the Tredegar Hall that evening.
